

Air 1 Radio uses a nation-wide FM translator service to reach well beyond their direct listening range in California. We in this part of Maryland daily use this contemporary music station because it has great music and information, but not the usual raunchy DJs and commentary. Air 1 is the sole local provider of this format and if they are displaced by an LPFM broadcaster we have nowhere to turn. This station clearly serves the public interest and must be allowed to continue.